JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE AMNESTY PROCLAMATION—IT IS TO ISSUED.

"Data" of the Baltimore Sun, writing from Washington, says:

A telegram from the Associated Press denies the truthfulness of a paragraph in these despatches relative to the President's proposed Amnesty message. Your correspondent has taken the trouble to get from the "best authority" the truth on this subject, and finds that what has heretofore been stated in these despatches is correct. As was stated before, the President informed Senator Johnson, of Virginia, and Senator Boarman, of West Virginia, that he had prepared a message to Congress recommending universal amnesty, and that he would transmit it to that body after the admission of Texas and Georgia; that in his opinion the time for general amnesty has arrived, and he thought Congress should pass a bill enabling all political offenders to become enfranchised by going to the nearest court, registering, and taking a proper oath. The republication of these facts aroused the opponents to general amnesty among a few senators and Representatives, who have been since that time exerting their influence with the President to have the message delayed or set aside altogether. Notwithstanding the unqualified denial by the Associated Press of the real facts, it is nevertheless true that the subject of amnesty has been several times talked over by the President and his Cabinet, and General Grant adheres to his original purpose, and the draft of a message to Congress on the subject is now lying upon his table. Meantime accounts of outrages alleged to have been committed recently in North and South Carolina and Alabama, upon colored persons, have been brought to the notice of the President by Senator Warner and others as a reason why the Amnesty Proclamation should not now be issued. Senator Warner vouches for the reliability of some of these accounts, whilst others are not credited. Secretary Fish had an interview with the President on the subject to day, and approves the course proposed by the President. General Sherman also approves the Amnesty message, and to-day remarked that Amnesty would tend to soothe the two or three hundred thousand persons disfranchised in the South, and would cause them to assist in putting down lawlessness, and this class of people would no longer be found saying: "We are not citizens, and don't care if the laws are violated." Admiral Porter also remarked that general amnesty ought to be granted at once.

A BALL IN THE FAR WEST.—The local editor of a very far West journal, having attended a ball on the frontier, has felt moved after the manner of Jenkins, of the metropolitan press, to furnish a report of some of the dresses worn by some of the eminent ladies present:

Miss A. was everlastingly scrumptious in an underskirt of red calico, flounced with blue muslin, surmounted with an overskirt of linsey hooped in the rear en saddleday with yellow bows. Waist a la anarugeon busome de buster. Hair in a chignon resembling half a cabbage head. Extraordinary hefty.

Mrs. B wore a skirt of home-made flannel displaying in a very beautiful manner her No. 11 moccasins. Corsage de sanspan ornamented with soldier buttons. Hair friessees perfume of cinnamon drops. Exclusively hifalutin.

Madame C., a noted half-bred belle, attracted an all fired sight of comment by appearing in a hoop skirt ornamented with fox tails en circumbendibus. Waist of yellow flannel, slashed with strips of buffalo hide. She carried a big sun flower, and danced with great looseness. Terrifically magnificent.

That is a queer story about GRANT and the Cabinet refusing to pay fare on the Hudson River Railway when en route to General THOMAS' funeral, and, but that it is so very circumstantial, might be taken as a hoax. The statement is that, having vainly endeavored to get his fare, the conductor proceeded to uncouple the Presidential car at Poughkeepsie, and would have left it on the track had not some higher official of that road taken the responsibility of ordering its freight of "dead heads" forward. Perhaps, as it appears the party left New York at midnight, they were, like the men in the pirate song, "all very merry," and so far above the baseness of the slave who pays, but be this as it may, the incident would be justly characterized as unprecedented did not memory recall how the great heart of the nation once whipped up his bobtailed gray in Philadelphia and went tearing down the street with a swarm of policemen, anxious to maintain the ordinance against fast driving, at his tail. Of course, it there was no attempt to bilk this Hudson River Railway conductor, a denial is in order. We take the story from the Poughkeepsie News.—World.

CLOVER AN ECONOMICAL CROP.—Red clover is recognized as ranking highly as a fertilizing crop. Prof. Voelcker, in a report of the Royal Agricultural Society of England, in 1868, said, in substance, that experiments made showed the largest crop of clover removed from the soil appeared to increase its wheat capabilities. From this, as well as from other deductions of the Professor, together with his own experience in the same line, a correspondent of the Rural New Yorker comes to the following conclusions:

"The best result to be gained in the use of clover as a fertilizer, comes by letting the growth remain as long as possible on ground, without even mowing or feeding. In this way the roots attain their greatest development, and the dense shade to the top soil is favorable to the deposition of nitrogenous matter. I would produce as dense and luxuriant a growth as possible, let it remain untouched by scythe or hoof until the last of summer, then plow and sow with wheat, or better still, work thoroughly in the autumn, and next spring, sow with barley and follow with wheat."

POST OFFICE RE-OPENED.—We are gratified to announce that the Post Office known as "Craighead," in this county, (between Charlotte and Davidson College,) has been re opened. Miss Rose Hustler is the Postmistress.—Charlotte Democrat.

CARY, who was hung in Belmont county, Ohio, the other day, admitted that his first sin was voting the Radical ticket.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1870.

"GOV. HOLDEN—LAW AND ORDER"

This is the caption of an article in the Standard of over a week ago, weakly defending, and modestly praising the Governor. We can't say positively, but we think the Governor wrote the article; it is very much in his style. It is certain Joseph, the editor, didn't write it, for he was in no condition at the time to write newspaper articles.

This article of the Standard charges Sheriff Murray, of Alamance, with cowardly fear of, or sympathy with the Ku Klux, and the falsehoods of the Governor's proclamation are again repeated. Hear what this writer says: "The civil officers of the county (Alamance) were powerless. Menaced by armed bands riding at night in disguise, these officials have not dared to perform their duty. The Sheriff of the county, who is well posted as to these outrages, has never called on the Governor for aid, whether from fear of these midnight marauders, or on account of sympathy he may have with them, does not appear."

Did Tim Lee, the Sheriff of Wake, arrest anybody last week, when Mr. Bledsoe's mill and cotton gin were burned to the ground, the flames from which, kindled by the incendiary, threw their rays upon the dome of the Capitol, the Governor's palace and the Court House? Did he make any arrest, some months ago, when Mr. Bledsoe's dwelling was burned? Will any honest man censure or impute blame to Sheriff Lee because he has not arrested the incendiaries? Will any one say that it is because he is afraid of them, or in sympathy with them?

Within the last six months, at least, sixty burglaries and larcenies have been committed within horn blow, as it were, of the Sheriff's bedroom—is he afraid of the perpetrators, or in sympathy with them, that he has not found and arrested them? Are Mayor Harrison and the city police afraid of or in sympathy with the rogues that are nightly committing depredations in the city, because they have not caught them all? Nobody believes such a preposterous proposition, and yet, the logic of the Standard's article in regard to the Sheriff of Alamance would with equal force involve the Sheriff of Wake and the city officers of Raleigh in the charge that they are afraid of, or in sympathy with, the authors of all the undetected crimes that have been committed in the city and county.

Will the Governor say that it is because the Sheriff is afraid of the incendiaries or burglars, or in sympathy with them, that they have not been arrested? Not he; and if he did, no one would believe him, and yet he expects to be believed when he charges the Sheriff of Alamance with being in fear of or sympathy with the authors of crime in Alamance, because he has not detected and arrested them all. Bah!

When old man Briley, of Pitt County, was shot, did the Radical Sheriff of that county call on the Governor for aid? And, if not, did the Governor accuse him of sympathy with the murderers for not doing so?

When Col. Nethercutt was murdered in his own house, did Colgrove call on the Governor for troops? Or, was he accused of sympathy with the murderers? Did he arrest anybody for that atrocious murder?

When the Foscue family—father, mother, daughter and grandson—were all murdered, was the Sheriff of Jones in sympathy with the assassins, or did he apply to the Governor for aid?

Was Grant called on for troops, or to suspend the writ of habeas corpus in any of these cases? No; no such thing was dreamed of.

But how is it in Alamance, when a negro was whipped for putting his hand, with evil intent upon a respectable white lady? Mr. Badham, a leading Republican of that county, said, "if he were in the place of the father of the lady, he would lie behind a log until the moss grew upon his back but what he would have killed him."

Old Mr. Corless, who had to leave Edenton and Franklinton for his inflammatory teachings to the ignorant blacks, settled in Alamance to force the irrepressible conflict of social equality upon the people there. He walked into church with a negro woman and his daughter and took prominent seats with them in front of the pulpit. A christian gentleman and elder of the church, told him if he had come to join in worship he was welcome, but if for strife and to force unpleasant issues upon the congregation, he had better have stayed away, and in the mean time the colored woman was shown a seat in the part of the Church for colored people.

Some rude boys went to old Corless' house and scourged him with many stripes; the old man didn't like it, so he left.

This was against law and order, but it was no worse than Governor Holden's driving Prof. Hedrick from the University because he expressed a determination to vote for Fremont for President!

Outlaw, President of the League, was hung in Alamance for shooting at the Ku Klux; so one of the Governor's Radical J. P.'s assured us. For this the Sheriff of Alamance is denounced, the county declared in a state of insurrection, and troops quartered among the people, and the Governor wants the further power to arrest, try and hang whom he pleases without the form's of even his own new Radical Code!

All this because Abbott and Littlefield Leslie, Deweese and their allies think it necessary to excite bad blood between the races and thus prevent, if possible, the disintegration of the leagues.

Who in view of all the facts connected with this case—except the Governor himself, or his son Joseph, could have the heardess of countenance to couple Gov. Holden's name with the terms "Law and order," especially when his driving Prof. Hedrick from the State, and his harangue to the mob in the City Hall, his call for Lincoln's head and his clamor for the impeachment of Andy Johnson, are remembered?

We believe that the Governor's flimsey pretext for his grand military movement is seen through and understood, both at home and abroad, and that it will fail of the object whereunto it was aimed; and, that the only effect it will have will be to add one more variety to that stenchy odor that will cling to his administration as long as posterity will be able to remember it.

WHO MAY BE MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The 14th amendment of the Constitution declares, "No person shall be Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or any State, who having previously taken oath," &c.

Such persons cannot, it is clear, be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, as the language of the amendment has it; but is he forbidden to be a Senator or Representative in a State Legislature?

The solution of this question depends upon whether such membership of a State Legislature is an office "under the State." Judge Reade, in Worth vs. Barnett, page 201 Phillips' Report, says it is not. His expression is "members of the Legislature are not officers."

It is true, on page 203, he says, "members of the Legislature are excluded from office, although they are not officers, by the express terms of the 14th article."

The expression obviously should be, "Those who were members of the Legislature before the war, are excluded from office." But a seat in the Legislature not being an office, they are not now barred from that by the amendment.

The exclusion of Messrs. Brown of Caswell, Turner of Orange and Allen of Duplin, by the present Legislature, at its commencement, amid the excitement of the times, is no precedent by which to settle such a question against the plain reading of the words, and the clearest maxims of Judicial construction.

The inhibition forbids the person affected from holding a seat in the National Legislature, but is silent as to a seat in the State Legislature—expressio unius est exclusio alterius.

Penal and disabling provisions are to be construed strictly, and must be extended no further than their literal import. The range, therefore, for the selection of candidates, if this reasoning be correct, is wider than many have imagined.

ANOTHER FALSEHOOD.—The SENTINEL of Monday distinctly states that Gov. Holden commissioned Chas. H. Snead, of Johnston county, a Justice of the Peace while said Snead was confined in jail at Smithfield, on the charge of horse stealing. The statement is utterly false. Governor Holden has not issued any commission of that character for Johnston county since the election for magistrates, held by the people of the Townships in August last. Snead was confined in jail some months after that date."—Standard of yesterday.

The SENTINEL "distinctly stated" no such thing; but here is what it did state: "Chas. H. Snead, a Holdenite and Justice of the Peace for Johnston county, and actually commissioned by the Governor when he was in prison," &c.

It is really provoking for the Governor's son to defend "Dad" by telling a falsehood on us, and then charge us with falsehood!

We did not charge that Snead was in Smithfield jail for horse stealing when the Governor commissioned him as a magistrate. We said he was in prison, not in jail. We repeat the charge, he was in prison, in the guard house in this city, though not for horse stealing. We are bound in this instance to say, Joseph, "you are another."

KU KLUX RAMPANT IN WASHINGTON N. C.—TERRIBLE STATE OF AFFAIRS—CHAOS AND CONFUSION REIGNS.

Disorder, anarchy and despotism prevalent—dogs, hogs, fleas and thieves run riot, no protection for life or property—absolute necessity for federal troops—awful.

As the Standard has advertised for reports of ku klux outrages, throughout the State, we copy the following from the Eastern Intelligencer for its benefit, fearing the extract may have escaped its notice and thus fail of being chronicled in the ponderous records that paper is getting up for the Summer campaign:

Last week some hungry Ku Klux, too lazy to work, broke into the Ware House of the Messrs. John Myers' Sons and stole therefrom three or four barrels of pork.

They even invade the sacred precincts of grave yards and disturb the repose of the dead.

They, on Saturday night last, attacked the wood pile of the editor of this paper, and were kind enough to leave six sticks out of a half cord.

They last week made a murderous onslaught on Jack, our p t Dorig, and wounded him sorely, hip and thigh.

With thievish hands, they attempted, some time since, to kidnap a black eyed, slick nose Poodle belonging to a lady of this place.

They have stolen Bro. Arthur's dorig Steve, and sold him back to him three consecutive times.

They surreptitiously entered a certain hen house, and borrowed therefrom a majestic Shanghai.

They purloined, last Friday, from a fence, a small piece of old Rag Carpeting, cherished for its many tender associations.

They, not long ago, relieved our friend Bogtrat of an old coat. Value, —— we don't know how much.

These are a few of the many outrages perpetrated upon a defenceless and peaceable people; and as a political campaign is just about opening, it is found very convenient to place them upon the head of a certain imaginary organization, or scapegoat, called Ku Klux!

NEW SLEEPING CARS.—Two new sleeping cars have been procured for the accommodation of passengers on the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad going through to Savannah via Charleston on the new route. They will run from this city to Charleston, via Florence. One of the cars has already arrived and been placed upon the route—The other is daily expected.—Wil. Journal.

DIXIE—EXPERIENCES AND OBSERVATIONS OF A NEWARKER IN THE SOUTH.

The Portis Gold Mine in North Carolina—Its present condition and capacities—Sentiments of the Southern people—Prospects for Emigration, etc., etc.

MY DEAR COURIER:—On Saturday, March 5th, I left Newark, and took passage on board the "Isaac Bell," Pier 37, N. Y., for Norfolk, Va., paying therefor ten dollars, state room and meals included. The captain, the steward and the engineer, I found to be most amiable gentlemen; the state room nice, the bed good, the blankets plentiful, the supper excellent, and duly honored by my good appetite. When darkness prevented me from admiring any longer the ocean, I repaired to "Social Hall," puffed one more Figaro, and retired to bed. Though slightly rolling, the sea neither sickened me, nor prevented my rest in the least. I rose early, chatted pleasantly with the officers and my fellow travellers, and at seven partook of a fine breakfast.

With the exception of seeing now and then some vessels moving in different directions, nothing remarkable occurred till noon, when a splendid and delicately cooked dinner was served to about forty passengers, about one-third of whom were of the fair sex, and mostly good looking, too.—Shortly after dinner, we came in sight of Capes James and Henry, then Fortress Monroe, the Rip Raps, Hampton Roads, the U. S. Marine Hospital, the buoy indicating the spot where the "Merrimac" was sunk, the hotel of City Point, Portsmouth, Norfolk, &c.

Landing at 5 P. M. at Norfolk, I took rooms at the National Hotel, and before supper Lauryed that thrifty and growing city as far as the time permitted, learning that its inhabitants have none but cistern water, but that they intend to have a "croton" of their own ere long.

For supper at "The National" the finest oysters I ever tasted, but the steak" improperly cooked, the coffee horrible. Not liking rainwater for stomachic purposes, I revenged myself on those delicious bivalves with a bottle of Scotch ale; was provided with a clean room, a good bed, a poor breakfast. At 5 A. M. I paid my bill (only three dollars,) crossed the Elizabeth river per ferry boat to Portsmouth, where I took my railroad ticket for Weldon, N. C., at a cost of five dollars.

Stopping at Suffolk, Va; the neighborhood of the Dismal Swamp, where my firstborn, my good Emil died, while serving the Union, I felt sad, very sad indeed—blessed his memory and shed many and warm tears. * * * * * At Weldon I took the cars on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad for Warrenton; arriving at that station at 2 P. M. A negro woman there offered to the voyageurs, for sale, of course, a large dish of broiled Spring chickens, and another loaded with pies. There not being a Delmonico nor a "Greasy Mason" in the locality, and feeling as hungry as a hungry wolf, I devoured two half chickens "in less than no time," to the delight of the peddling restaranteur, whose only customer I proved to be on the train, who thanked me much and wished me all kinds of happiness for the dollar, the smile and good wishes I gave her.

So far my journey had been easy, but now I had to meet the inherent troubles of traveling a distance of 23 miles without railroad, steamer or regular stage, through a country where the roads could be, partly, at least, a great deal better. John Plummer, an Octaroon and free man before the war, of one of the "old lease," as I call themselves there, had gone with his team and a partyjot capitalists from Pennsylvania to Ridgeway (a smart, rich Pennsylvanian settlement about 5 miles from Warrenton Station), and as John is the only conveyancer in that region, I had a very good chance of losing a day's time, had I been an inexperienced tourist, but I took bravely the lumber wagon, the old mule and the young darkey servant of the Grocer of "the place," and this trinity, for one dollar, brought me to the heart of the village of Warrenton (three miles from Warrenton Station), where I learned, as said above, that John Plummer had gone to Ridgeway! I accosted the first gentleman I met in the street, after the bad news the hotel keeper had given me, regarding Plummer's non estoppage, asking him if there was no one but the "old lease" in the county seat of Warren to take me to the Portis gold mine. He kindly conducted me to a planter's house, whose owner agreed to let me have his team and "boy" for seven dollars—a reasonable price. This offer I immediately accepted and settled for. My driver, a negro boy of 17 to 18, did not know the way any more than I did; but being bound to surprise, with the least delay, my friend, Colonel William E. Sturges, at Ransom's Bridge, N. C., I took my courage in all my hands, not much afraid of the topographical exactness of the rights and lefts, etc., as were indicated to me and to my driver, and which were not easy of comprehension, I may assure the readers hereof. About three miles away a gentleman was talking to a white man, at the gate of his plantation. "Am I in the right road, Sir, to the gold mines?" "Yes, Sir, but you do not expect to go there this evening?" (it was then 4 P. M.) "I do, if in any way feasible." "Impossible, Sir; but come in a moment." I alight at instantly and shook the hand he extended to me. "My name is Alfred Alston." Announcing mine, and giving him the envelope of a letter (having forgotten my cards). "Mr. Labiaux," said he, "let us have a drink," and while sending for a pitcher of fresh water and putting a bottle of fine whisky and a bowl of sugar on the sideboard, he told me that he knew the roads, that the best team could not carry me that evening to the "mines," and that I had better stay with him over night. Such delicate attention almost amused me, yet, in my egotistical desire to see "Billy," I said: "Mr. A., as you are so very kind to me, would I not abuse my privilege as a stranger, in asking you if I could not this evening gain some miles upon to morrow's journey, and find a hospitable roof on the way?" "Well, Mr. L., appreciating your anxiety to see Mr. Sturges, I will tell you what to do. Four and a half miles from here is my brother, K. P. Alston. Go to him; he will take smart care of you; but promise me, that on your return, you will at least stay one night with me." I promised so (unfortunately, I had to return by another road); we had another dram, he indicated me the way, and we had a hearty, hard, and smart hand shaking.

At the point diagrammed, a fine oak lane, leading to a large mansion, from under the portico of which a gentleman looking at the setting sun perceived my buggy and came to the gate. I was struck with his noble bearing, and was almost going to cry out, "Allons. Monsieur Victor Hugo!" for he certainly bears a great resemblance to France's greatest author and best son.—Said I: "Mr. Alston, your brother Alfred has advised me to solicit from you the hospitality for the night, and I follow his counsel." "Be welcome, sir! Your name if you please!" The first thing was "a dram;" a glowing fire, in a huge parlor of high ceiling then invited us; after a very pleasant chat of about an hour, I was presented to Mrs., Miss and Mr. Alston, Jr., and partook with the family of a very good supper, finding all members of the family as charming as my Amphitryon; after supper Mr. A. lead me back to the parlor, and there we chatted (while puffing and dreaming once in a while) on many topics, and of many persons (among others of Peter Duryee and J. M. Quimby, with whom Mr. A. dealt before the war,) till half past eleven, when Mr. A. showed me my bedroom, provided with a large smiling fire and every necessary comfort and luxury.—Next morning the fire was in perfect order before I arose; an appetizing breakfast; a hasty and admiring survey of a part of "the plantation;" hand shakings mutually heartfelt wishes of happiness, invitations, promises, &c., and off I went, with team and Sambo, for "the mines," only losing our way twice, and reaching Sturges' Hotel at 2 P. M.

Just imagine the scene, when, not at all expected, and the first Newarker (who was not interested in the "mines") who ever went there, I arrived, and was seen by "Billy." * * * * * *

I stopped a whole week with Sturges; studied the people, the climate and the resources, the value of the Portis gold mine, the planting of cotton, &c.

I will try to briefly detail here, the conclusions I came to:

First, The whites, a large number of whom it has been my good fortune to become acquainted with, such as Messrs. Thomas, Avent, Davis, Wright, Rosser, Doctor Harrison, B. B. Nicholson, &c. &c., are all men of education, honor and good sentiments, and told me that any Northerner or European, be he a Republican or a Democrat, settling among them as a bona fide citizen (not a carpet bagger) will receive their hand of fellowship, and I fully rely on their word just as well as on my mother's. I shall never forget the respect, the fine sentiments, the friendship showered upon me at the house of Baldy Davis, Esq., who, on that Sunday, gave a real Balthazar feast to about twenty or twenty-five guests; neither shall I ever forget that an adopted son of Mr. Davis (a boy of about nine years) is the greatest prodigy I ever met with or heard of, and, could he only be heard once by Edwin Booth or any other eminent tragedian, I predict that he will bouse the stage and delight and astonish the world.

Second The colored people are industrious, sober, honest and more intelligent than I expected to find them. For an average of sixty cents they give a faithful day's work, on the plantations, mines or whatever the kind of labor it may be.

Third, The climate is delightful; the soil productive; the country very healthy; the fruits plentiful; the forests dense with all kinds of trees; the creeks fishy; the game abundant, and the land dirt cheap now.

Fourth. The Portis Gold Mine is a stock company, in which considerable Newark capital is invested; this mine has yielded, before the war, by surface mining, or rather scraping, a half a dozen fortunes. Since 1865 operations thereon have not been properly conducted; want of knowledge in mining, &c., but especially the insufficiency of water for sluicing has interfered seriously with the interests of the owners; an artesian well has been tried, but tube and money are sunk, and no water!

The new lessees of the company, Messrs. Thomas K. Thomas and Wm. E. Sturges, have just vigorously undertaken the exploitation of the "mine;" a charter has been granted to them by the Legislature of North Carolina, and they are pushing the construction of a ditch or canal, four feet wide, and fifteen miles in length; when this ditch shall bring the water in the reservoirs of the two hills, on the Portis property, gold, and plenty of it, they shall have; I know it, for everywhere we passed, I could see the gold with my naked eye.—The Water Company proposes to furnish water to the miners at a fixed price of ten cents to the square inch per day, and the Mine Company is willing to contract on royalty, with any responsible parties.—(This does not mean that it requires a big capital; only skill and honesty are wanted.)

Mr. Warcell, a practical California miner (and a Newarker,) who explored the Portis gold mine in the latter part of last December, said then: "Have water, I will come;" left from here on Monday, March 14, for the Portis gold mine, on his own account, to prepare himself for when the ditch shall be completed, and to look out for the proper situating.

Mr. Weisenborn, from Irvington, N. J., an Austrian miner and an experienced metallurgist, will go there in a few days, to superintend the crushing and the smelting of the quartz minings.

I believe in the opinion of the two practical men I have just named, and I believe in the rich future of the Portis mine.

And now for me. Taken in, with what is the description above given, I bought some land and a large building for my house and store, gave my orders before I left there, for certain alterations and improvements, and came North, leaving Ransom's Bridge and its peach trees in full bloom, on the 14th, by way of Enfield, N. C., (my shipping point,) thence to Weldon, where I took for $17, my ticket for New York; again passed at Suffolk, * * * * arrived at Portsmouth at 6 P. M., where the fine steamer Geo. Leary was in waiting for us, steamed up the Chesapeake Bay, witnessed a magnificent sunrise before breakfast; took the cars at Baltimore and reached home at 6.55, thus making the trip in less than 31 hours.

I am completing, now, my purchases of goods and other arrangements; have received my appointment of P. M. at Ransom's Bridge, and will move from my beloved Newark for my new home on the 21st of April, a sorrow my friends that I ever will remember them and always will be happy to give them any information in my possession regarding North Carolina.

J. L. LABIAUX.

P. S.—Let me not forget to state:

A. That in my immediate vicinity, the Scuppernong, a native vine, produces abundantly, an excellent wine, resembling much the delicate and renowned Tokay.

B. That Ransom's Bridge is not even a village; besides the Portis mansion, now occupied by the white employees and as office of the Mine Company, there is but my house and store, about one hundred yards from the hotel, where, as Sturges says, "we have three good square meals per day" ($2 per day for transient customers) good rooms and beds, and in the person of Capt. Avent, "a man who knows how to keep a hotel."

C. Within two hundred yards border the counties of Nash, Franklin, Warren and Halifax, and there is every probability that ere two years a new county will be made there, which shall be called Jersey county, in honor of the enterprising spirit of some Jerseymen.

D. That the whole expense of my trip (11 days) only amounted to seventy one dollars.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Miss J. Cozart's Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

CARD.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE CO.,
TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

AT the request of General Jno. B. Gordon, President Atlanta Department, I have come to your State to bring prominently before you the claims and merits of the Southern Life Insurance Company. It is under the control of as honorable and as responsible men as there are in the land. It is managed in the most prudent and economical manner and will deal justly and fairly with all.

We have no war to make upon other Insurance Companies, but we do wish to impress upon the people the importance of keeping their money at home. By careful calculation it is estimated that a sum of not less than twelve millions (annually) is sent from the South, to the North for Life Insurance and unless checked will surely prove suicidal to our interests. We ask you to consider how greatly the material interest of this section would be benefited by the retention of these enormous sums in our midst.

We send no money away to enrich foreign capitalists but every dollar of premium (less expenses) IS INVESTED IN THE STATE FROM WHICH IT IS DERIVED.

This department of the Company has operated both in Georgia and South Carolina, and has done an unprecedentedly large business. Some of the most prominent gentlemen in these States are identified with its interest. Its Board of Directors embrace the names of the ablest financiers, and most successful business men in the South. They are the Trustees of the sacred fund of the widow and orphan. Will you not trust your friends and neighbors; or is it more secure in the hands of a rangers? We appeal to you to assist us in pushing forward this deservedly popular and reliable Southern corporation. Its solvency is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in the United States. Its ratio of assets to liabilities the only true test of a Company's strength, fully sustaining this statement.—We would respectfully call attention to the Board of Directors and Stockholders, published in another column, and to our Board of Reference in this State and others.

General Agent.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1870.

Thos. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

Announcement of Candidates, not exceeding five lines, until the day of election, will be inserted in the Sentinel for $5, payable in advance.

Speaking at Morrisville.—The editor of the Sentinel will address the people of Wake, at Morrisville, on Saturday next 16th inst.

New Ads.—Beautiful City Lots at auction, by R S. Pullen, Esq. These lots, the sale of which was postponed before for reasons not necessary to allude to, are again in market, at auction on the 12th of May. The location is among the most pleasant and beautiful in the city, being in regard to natural feature and social surroundings.

Tax-payers observe, the books close to-day.

See announcement of A. G. Lee & Co., of new arrival of heavy groceries, Peruvian Guano and other articles in their line.

Pescud, Lee & Co., announce fresh arrivals of Drugs, Medicines, Oils, Paints and Dye-Stuffs, Perfumery, Spices, seeds &c., forming a most complete stock in their line to meet the demands of their trade, wholesale and retail. The house may be easily distinguished on Fayetteville street, by the sign of the big brass mortar.

Horse, Rockaway and harness, G. T. Stronach.

Mineral water don't go badly,
When it foams and pops;
Gattis, Boyster, Thiem and Bradley—
Blow their soda whops!

Bradley & Christophers have got their fine arctic fountain, with all the modern improvements, and 'winding coils of pipe through the miniature iceberg of the reservoir, in full play and are ready for their warm and thirsty customers.

By-the-way, these gentlemen have recently temp'ated important repairs to their establishment, by which both its appearance and convenience are promoted, and persons wanting anything in their line will be likely to find it there, and of good quality.

Spring Like.—The last two days have been quite Springlike; yesterday especially so. The bright sunshine put new life and song in the birds, and brought out the ladies in great numbers to interview the stocks of new goods now being opened by our enterprising merchants.

We notice that the Roysters have charged their splendid soda fount, which has been kept pretty busy fizzing and popping for the comfort of thirsty customers for the last two days.

We begin to feel like the winter is past, and that the voice of the turtle will soon be heard in the land.

We hear that our popular Insurance Agent, Mr. P. F. Pescud leaves home in a few days to establish Insurance Agencies for the National Life, and the several Fire Insurance Companies for which he has the general management in the State, and we bespeak for him a hearty reception and liberal patronage in any locality he may visit.

No important cases before the Court yesterday. The Grand Jury added several new cases to the State docket. There is no capital case on the docket for the term.

Dr. Lindeman, whose fame as a Chiropodist is world-wide, and whose name in St. Louis, Chicago and Cincinnatti is a household word, is still in town, and has a room at the Yarboro' House, where he is prepared to treat (in all cases) successfully the extraction of corns, bunions and inverted nails, without the slightest pain or drawing blood. Dr. L. brings with him credentials from the first families of the above named cities, where he is looked upon as the only successful Chiropodist in the West. By consulting the Doctor's catalogue of prices it will be seen that the poorest can obtain the blessing essential to comfort, namely, sound feet, at the most moderate charges. Will positively remain only a few days.

We learn from Mr. P. F. Pescud, Gen'l Ag't for North Carolina, that the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, passed during the last week a noticeable milestone in its growth and progress. In the short space of twenty months since its organization, it has issued 10,000 policies, with an insurance of $25,337,869. Such success is a far more unqualified and emphatic endorsement of this Company by the public than has ever been awarded in this country or abroad to any new organization. It is a valuable tribute to integrity, enterprise and low rates of Premium, which are consistent only with the now popular Common sense or Sure Plan of life insurance.

The policy numbered 10,000 is for $10,000, and was issued to a prominent railroad officer of New Jersey who thoroughly knew the Company and its merits, and had the wisdom to patronize it.

The Hibernicon.—A Newbern exchange says, in speaking of the Hibernicon, which opens here on Friday night:

Jerry Cohan, as "Barney the Guide" is intimitable, for pure, broad, unadulterated Irish brogue and blarney we have seldom seen him excelled. In connection with his representation as Barney, he introduces other and interesting imitations; and upon the whole, one might safely say that he is a combination of comic characters, and a complete entertainment in himself.

Miss Mary Dalton Mac Evoy, as Nora, was all that could be desired, naive, versatile, and a good singer.

Miss Kate Halpine, as Mrs. O'Callaghan, and the Young Widow was excellent.

Mr. Mac Evoy, as Director of the Entertainment, contributed to the pleasure of the performance; giving evidence of an extensive knowledge of Irish History, Customs, and Manners. On the whole, it is an excellent entertainment.

Reprehensible.—A gentleman informs us that four letters, directed to him, to the Raleigh Post Office, but which had never come to his hands, were picked up by Mr. W. S. Adams, near Gen. Cox's gate, on the Hillsboro road, and returned to him this week. These were important business letters, and their non-reception had been a source of surprise and annoyance.

This is accounted for on the supposition that some unauthorized person, having learned the gentleman's box at the Post Office, had called for his mail and the Postmaster or Clerk, supposing it was all right, had handed them out without sufficient precaution, the scoundrel expecting to get valuable letters, that is, letters with money; being disappointed in which, he threw them where Mr. Adams found them.

We don't know how this new dodge can well be remedied, as it would be impossible, without great trouble, for the Clerks at the Post Office, always to be sure that persons applying for mail matter are entitled to receive it, but in regard to well known citizens, proper caution might prevent letters being given to unauthorized persons, and even lead to the detection and arrest of those who are playing that sort of game.

Champion Cook Stoves and Gas Lights.—These Stoves and Lights that have excited so much attention here and elsewhere, will at the request of some of the leading citizens of Raleigh, be exhibited on to-day (Thursday) only, at Mr. Rosenbaum's store, next door to Pescud, Lee & Co. Stoves between the hours of 3 and 7, P. M.; and Lights from 8 to 11, P. M. This exhibition is intended for the ladies especially, and it is hoped they will call and see for themselves, and if they please, bring or have brought any article of food they may wish to see cooked.

[COMMUNICATED]

Holy Thursday.—To-day the Catholic church commemorates with great Solemnity Last Supper and the institution of the Eucharist. The people prolong their devotions through the entire day; and their Churches are filled to a late hour at night with silent adorers.

The interior of St. John's Church in this city is to day most imposing. On entering you are struck with the view of one gorgeous recess or chapel. With this exception the entire edifice wears an aspect of profound desolation preparatory to the celebration of the Death of Christ—awful event to be commemorated on to-morrow. The recess alluded to is a superb "Repository" for the reception of the consecrated Host, and here the devout worshipper continues his vigils and offers prayer and adoration until Good Friday dawns upon the world.

ORDER OF EXERCISES.

Mass at 8 o'clock. Procession from High Altar to the Repository immediately after Mass.

People visit the Repository at all hours during the day. The children of the Sunday School, (two and two) relieve one another at intervals.

The following gentlemen are named by the Pastor as a Guard of Honor, before the Tabernacle. They are expected to be present from morning until midnight at such times as business will permit.

W. F. Riddick, John R. Ferrall, H. J. Menninger, John Caton, M. B. Barbee, T. F. Lee, John C. Syme, Daniel Clancy, E. Kirsch Schlaegel, F. J. Menninger, Amos La Barbe, P. McGowan, Sr., J. Backalan, John Tighe, M. A. Prendergast, E. Besson, John Robinson, P. McGowan, Jr., A. J. Ruffee, Francis Brennan, Henry M. Miller, J. O'Brien, John Duffy, Jeremiah Green, J. Gallagher, L. Hanson, L. Haggerty, John Rosemond.

For the Sentinel.

Johnston County, April 12th 1870.

Mr. Editor:—The people of this county read with great interest all you say of editorial Billy, or as you call him, "Blow-your horn Billy."

They remember when Billy was blowing his horn and no free citizen of this county could go to or from the Court House without a permit from him. They remember, too, that when the farmer should have been turning up the earth preparatory to sowing his seeds, Billy was tearing it up with Jeff, Lin, and Sat, in hot pursuit of deserters.

Billy is charged with running two newspapers, the Standard and the Recorder.—When he was down here, some time ago, he was heard to say, in speaking of the night's work before, him that he should have to "write editorials half the night, and whip Jo Turner like h—ll in the morning, if he bothered him!" We now call him "Editorial Billy." Since, however, he carried off Swepson to the woods in an extra train, to serve as a scape-goat for all radicals, we think he should be called "extra" Billy. Yours,

KIRBY DISTRICT.

We shall not "bother" Billy, and we tell Billy, "shoo fly; don't bother me."—Editor.

In the Senate the resolution for a joint special committee on Indian Affairs was adopted. The Judiciary Committee made an affirmative report on the validity of the election of A. Gilbert, senator from Florida. The Georgia bill was discussed as to the expediency and legality of continuing the present Legislature two years longer, as proposed by Williams.

Ferry and Norton favored Bingham's amendment, and Abbott and Williams opposed it. The former urging the suppression by military force, the extensive organization in the south to resist the laws and kindred rebel sentiment.

[He must have been sleeping with Littlefield. Editor.]

The Governor and Legislature of Ohio are coming to Washington on a visit. [Wonder who pays the expenses?—Editor.]

A New Discovery!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Thousands of Precious Lives are to-day as rapidly sinking, and as surely festering on to an untimely end, in Suffering, Agony, Wretchedness, and

Ignor nce of the cause which

Science can arrest and assuage,

And endue the Bloom of Health
To dance once more upon their withered Cheeks.

DISEASE, LIKE A THIEF,

The emaciated form—the trembling frame?
The treacherous pimple—the torturing sore?
The repulsive eruption—the inflamed eye?
The pimpled face—the rough colorless skin?

The answer is simple, and covers the whole ground in all its phases, viz: the

The

On reaching the Stomach, it assimilates at once with the food and liquids therein, and from the moment it passes into the Blood it attacks disease at its fountain head, in its germ and maturity, and dissipates it through the avenues of the organs with unerring certainty, and sends new and pure Blood bounding through every artery and vein.

The tubercules of Scrofula that sometimes flourish and wind the inner coating of the abdomen, like kernels of corn, are withered, dissolved and eradicated and the diseased parts nourished into life. The Torpid Liver and Inactive Kidneys are stimulated to a healthy action, and their natural functions restored to renewed health and activity.

Do not Insure Your Life

UNTIL YOU ASCERTAIN FROM

P. F. PESCUD,

General Agent for North Carolina,

WHY THE

National Life Insurance Company,

OF THE

can, and does issue a larger Policy for less money than any other Company, represented in North Carolina.

The National was organized in August 1868. She has issued nearly

10,000 POLICIES,

HAS A CASH CAPITAL OF

which was all paid in before a Policy was issued and which has already increased fifty per cent. All the losses reported to 1st Jan'y last amounted to but $40,000, and as a further evidence of the great care observed in the selection of risks, 924 applications amounting to nearly $3,000,000, were rejected last year. Therefore a solid basis and encouragements that none but Stock Companies can afford, is enjoyed by all who prefer the National to Mutual or mixed Companies.

ALL LIABILITY FOR LOSSES IS AVOIDED.

Every man who has a family, should try to create an Estate for their support, when he is taken from them by death—and a very small annuity spent for a Policy secures a larger amount of Cash Assets, and is far more certain, than the same amount will secure in any other investment, and a more tender expression of love and responsibility could not in any other way be more beautifully expressed.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

It costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and injurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

Managed by able men, thoroughly experienced in the business of Life Insurance; its business since its organization has exceeded that of any other Company for the corresponding period of its existence

H. H. GOODLOE,	General Agent for N. C.
DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD,	Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER,	Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

JAMES P. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150.000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory—its President, James P. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the entitled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.
